

FACULTY OF BUSINESS MANAGEMENT
END OF SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS - APRIL 2025

PROGRAMME: DPA

YEAR/SEM: YEAR 2/SEMESTER 2

COURSE CODE: DPA2204

NAME: FOUNDATION OF NON PROFIT MANAGEMENT

DATE: 2025-04-17

TIME: 2:00-5:00PM

INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES:

1. Read the instructions very carefully
2. The time allowed for this examination is STRICTLY three hours
3. Read each question carefully before you attempt and allocate your time equally between all the Sections
4. Write clearly and legibly. Illegible handwriting cannot be marked
5. Number the questions you have attempted
6. Use of appropriate workplace examples to illustrate your answers will earn you bonus marks
7. Any examination malpractice detected will lead to automatic disqualification.

DO NOT WRITE ANYTHING ON THE QUESTION PAPER

Section A SECTION A IS COMPULSORY and CARRIES 40 MARKS

Question 1:

The Hunger Project, operating in rural Uganda, focuses on empowering women to combat hunger and poverty. Through skill-building programs, microfinance initiatives, and leadership training, the NGO has transformed the lives of thousands of women. By fostering women's leadership and decision-making roles in local governance, The Hunger Project has catalyzed positive change at the grassroots level, leading to improved access to education, healthcare, and economic opportunities.

The Hunger Project, an international NGO, has been actively working in rural Uganda to address issues of hunger, poverty, and gender inequality. By focusing on empowering women, the organization aims to transform communities and foster sustainable development. This case study sheds light on the transformative initiatives undertaken by The Hunger Project in rural Uganda, highlighting their impact in empowering women and promoting social progress.

QUESTIONS

a) Explain the numerous challenges women in rural Uganda face that The Hunger Project recognized the urgent need to address these issues and create opportunities for women to thrive and lead change.

14marks

b) The impact of The Hunger Project's initiatives has been significant, bringing about positive change in the lives of women and communities in rural Uganda. Explain some of the key outcomes women and community will benefit from The Hunger project.

14marks

c) Because the nature and quality of individual NGOs varies greatly, it is extremely difficult to make generalizations about the sector as a whole. Despite this diversity, some specific strengths and weakness are generally associated with the NGO sector. What are the weaknesses and strengths of NGOs

12marks

Section B CHOOSE ANY THREE(3) QUESTIONS OF YOUR CHOICE

Question 1:

NGO funding is an important component of NGO growth and expansion to achieve its intended core mission. Describe the process involved in seeking funds for NGO operations

20marks

Question 2:

Differentiate the following terms as applied in the management of NGOs:

1) Non-Governmental Organization and Inter-Governmental Organization

4marks

2) Civil Society and Government Related Organization

4marks

- b) Describe the TWO categories of NGOs defining their major roles and areas of accommodation
12marks

Question 3:

Also known as a civil society organization, an NGO may be established at the community, national, or international level to serve a cause, such as protecting the environment. Explain the reasons as to why NGOs are important.

10marks

- b) What are the challenges faced by NGOs in their management.
10marks

Question 4:

NNGO, PANGO, TNGO, QUANGO and DONGO are some of the acronyms used in the management of NGOs. Briefly describe the following acronyms to explain their areas of application.

10marks

- b) Explain at least FIVE functions of NGOs intended for community project development.
10marks

Question 5:

Describe how you would design a new NGO project addressing a particular social issue in your community.
20marks

Question 6:

The types of NGOs can have overlapping functions and work together to address complex social, economic, and environmental issues. Each type plays a critical role in contributing to the overall impact and success of the non-profit sector. Examine the different types of NGOs known to you.

20marks